This course will focus on a selection of works—poetry, prose, and drama—by English authors of the sixteenth century. We will approach the texts in a variety of ways: (1) close analysis and explication of individual works; (2) discussion of a text’s position in the evolution of its genre; and (3) examination of a work's relationship to sixteenth century cultural issues.

Texts: