

RECIPE FOR A TRIP FILLED WITH LITERARY INDULGENCES

Food and Identity in Literature

Spring Break Field Trip to D.C. & NYC

Professor: Dr. Jervette R. Ward

Ready: March 11-15, 2020

Serves: 30 Students

Calories: A worthy indulgence!

Cost: $735 plus flight

Tips

This Spring Break Field Trip is part of English 2990, but it is available as a stand-alone experience for ALL MSU students. A limited number of partial scholarships are available to English majors.

Visit the MSU English Department's website to register for this opportunity to visit Washington, D.C. and New York City to experience food and literary cultural sites: www.english.msstate.edu.

Ingredients

- A fun, adventurous, independent, & inquisitive disposition
- An interest in learning about the history of food and literature in the U.S.
- A desire to explore and visit cultural landmarks like Harlem and the Smithsonian Museums
- A taste for discovering the similarities and differences between Southern and Northeastern cuisine

Preparation - Expenses

- Program Cost: $735* (includes lodging)
- *Flight is not included and is booked individually -- suggested flight is $487

Experience

- The National Museum of African American History and Culture
- National Museum of the American Indian
- NYC's Schomburg Center for Research in Black Culture
- D.C. & NYC Restaurants, including BusBoys and Poets, Sweet Home Cafe, Mitsitam Cafe, & Seasoned Vegan (a vegan soul food restaurant in NYC!)
- The centrally located and student-centered HI Washington DC Hostel that includes WIFI, breakfast, kitchen, game room, and more!

For More Information: dr1651@msstate.edu