TESOL

TEACHING ENGLISH TO SPEAKERS OF OTHER LANGUAGES

MINOR

AT MISSISSIPPI STATE UNIVERSITY

Prepare for opportunities abroad
Learn techniques for language teaching
Work with English language learners in Mississippi

Five courses are required for the TESOL Minor:

Two courses in theoretical background:

- EN 4403/6403 Introduction to Linguistics
  (in your first semester in the minor program)
- EN 4463/6463 Studies in Second Language Acquisition

One of the following courses on the grammatical structure of English:

- EN 4443/6443 English Syntax
- EN 3423   Descriptive English Grammar
  (Only available to undergraduate education majors)

Two of the following courses in language teaching methodology:

- EN 4453/6453 Methods in TESOL
- EN 4433/6433 Approaches to TESOL
- EN 4493/6493 TESOL Practicum (study abroad)

Note: On its own, the TESOL Minor does not lead to K-12 ESOL certification, which is required to teach in the public school system in the U.S. However, the minor can be added to a current or in-progress Mississippi educator's license to obtain an ESL supplemental endorsement.
